POWER SERIES RACING IS BACK WITH A BANG!

The 2026 Power Series presented by Lime Property Management in association with Smile 90.4 FM gets off to an unpredictable start with new car/driver combinations actually in the majority in some categories – but that’s what makes motorsport so addictive!

The Thermo Fires Clubmans Saloons lead the charge with Clint Rennard’s G&A Motorsport Golf 2L and veteran Jesse Huggett in his Origen Oil/Rico Barlow Racing Jetta 2 taking on Michael le Seuer (New Engineering Golf `1.8) and Shane du Toit (Golf Mk1 FSi) in an all-Volkswagen Class A.

They’ll need to look out, however, for Class X entrants Zack Groenewald, in a newly prepared N2 Towing and Panelbeaters/Kaltron BMW E36 3L, and Sandra Bekker (N2 Panelbeaters/Brandtegrity BMW E46).

The Cadiz BMW CCCT Series, in only its second full season, now boasts the second-largest entry on the programme, with 25 Blue Propeller Boykies lined up to do battle. And that’s without any Class A entries, and only Kai van Zijl (Origen Oil I Series) entered in Class B.

That leaves the field wide open for Class C’s fast but unpredictable Daanyaal Coetzee (D Squared Supplies E36 M3) and Progress Precision Engineering maestro Marco Retter’s E36 330i, to challenge for line honours; either could spring a surprise on the day.

The API Property Group GTi’s are back with a bang, led by Schalk Geldenhuys (Goeie Hoop Onderdele Polo 6 2L), Ian Kapp (Hydracor Polo 6) and Tate Bishop (Angri Racing Polo 6) who has grown up a lot since his karting days.

Nevertheless, expect door-handle bashing racing throughout the field, especially in the entry-level Class C ranks, where no less than a dozen equally matched wannabes will be out to make a name for themselves.

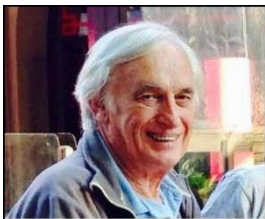

The revitalized Warwick Wealth Sports & GT category is set for a head-to-head showdown between Dawie Joubert’s new Nova Proto NP02 and the Advanced Packaging Technology Ginetta G57, shared between Gary Kieswetter and Troy Dolinschek – who holds the ultimate lap record for Killarney in this car at 1min 6.709sec.

IN MEMORIAM...

RIP ROBBIE ADAMS

The final chequered flag has come down for a champion racer, with the passing on Saturday 31 January of 1972 WP Motorcycle Champion Robbie Adams, at the age of 81, after a long illness.

His passing leaves a hole in the fabric of motorsport at Killarney that can only be partially filled by good memories and old photographs; our thoughts and prayers are with his wife Yvonne, son Ryan and daughter Michelle in this difficult time.

RIP BERNARD TILANUS

We join the local and international racing community in mourning the passing of former South African Race Driving Champion, Bernard Tilanus.

We extend our heartfelt condolences to his wife Jean, his daughters Candy and Samantha, and the extended Tilanus family during this difficult time.

Rest in Peace, Bernard Tilanus – Motorsport South Africa

RIP ANGIE PALMER

Paul Lehmann writes: Today we pause to honour the life of Angie Palmer, a cherished member of our Orange Army family.

Angie served as a marshal for nearly nine years. She joined us in 2010, beginning her journey in Turn 6 — the marshal's pub — where her energy, friendliness, and willingness to help quickly made her a familiar and trusted face. From there, she moved to the track and became a dedicated flag marshal, a role she embraced with pride and commitment.

Angie, your Orange Army family will miss you. Your kindness, your dedication, and your spirit will remain part of our track forever. May you rest in peace.

Behind them, however, anything can happen and probably will as sports cars such as Connor Kilbride's pretty little Racing Spirit Ligier JS53 take on a number of Porsche 911 derivatives and surprisingly quick Nissan 350Z coupes, among a near-record 19-strong entry.

The irrepressible Franco Donadio leads the Laude Classic Cars field – which is now a Regional Championship – in his Chev Can Am, with Jarryd Evans' Cape Eye Laser Capri as the only other Class A entry. Notable, however, is the Class X entry of Danie Sandenbergh in the ex-Dave Kopke Mazda R100, a car that was practically unbeatable in its day and could still rattle a few cages this weekend.

Another category making a comeback, with considerable hands-on input from series sponsor Clint Riddin of Lime Property Management, is the Pro Oil/Lime Properties Formula Supercars. Expect strong showings from class veterans Glen Phillips, Ryan Kat and Andrew Moffit, with super-talented Nashrene Schloss in a newly refreshed car to keep them honest.

The Bejo Trustees Formula Libre entry may look a little sparse, with only the Formula VW of Jason Coetzee and the Draken Racing Formula GTi Ray of Damioan White at the sharp end of the field – but everybody else is in closely matched Formula Vees, and that's where the real action is as they battle for class honours all the way to the line. Expect fireworks.

SUPERBIKES OUT IN FORCE FOR POWER SERIES OPENER

The premier Pirelli Superbikes/Challenge/Masters/600's category at Round 1 of the Power Series presented by Lime Property Management in association with Smile 90.4 FM boasts a classy line-up, with the reigning Regional Champion, his greatest rival, two former title-holders and an international star heading the entry list

Slade 'Wild Child' van Niekerk (Project 60/Planet Automation/Visionfin ZX-10R) will defend his 2025 title from runner-up Tristin Pienaar (Missile Motorcycles CBR1000RR), former champions Malcom Rapson (Racebase GSX-R1000) and Ronald Slamet (RSRA R1), and international Supersport rider Alan-Jon Venter on the TruVine/Vault Market ZX-10R.

This star-studded front row is back up by no less than 14 more entries, including Augustin Ntwan from Gauteng on the TAG 43/Lekka Racing YZF-R1, and SBK Challenge regulars Wayne Arendse (Eagle Vision Association ZX-10R), Shaun Mackrill (GFP Lighting S1000RR) and Hilton 'Wild Man' Redelinghuys (Eighty 7 Racing R1 Big Bang). Another epic confrontation is likely in the 600cc category, where veteran Jonny Towers (61 this year!), riding the Missile Motorcycles CBR600, takes on eighteen-year-old Zander Taljaard (TMS & Aluminium Purpose GSX-R750) in a classic 'youth vs experience' battle.

The Pirelli Clubman, Classic & Breakfast Run category sees the return of Nineties star John Pienaar (Lumen8 RSV 1000RS) after a long absence, taking on Clubman heroes Wayne Gresse (Honda CBR1000) and Matthew Deuse (Motorwise ZX-10R). The dice of the race, however, is likely to be the fight for 600 Class line honours between Gerhard Joubert Triumph Daytona 5675, Wesley Hendricks (Auto Bodyworks/Motorwise/Ubuntu Movers ZX-6R) and Willem Louw (Kawasaki ZX-6R).

You have to ride like a girl to succeed in the Pirelli STC & SSP 300 races, where Adrian Solomon ((Pool King ER650), Max Munton (Mag Workshop/Sunscan ER650) and WPMC Chairman Lance Jonas have to deal with an all-out challenge from Abigail Bosson (Project Sixty SA/Calberg/Sales Hire ER650), famous for her "Win it or bin it" attitude!

Joining Ms Bosson in this class are Hilton Redelinghuys' daughter Codie (Eighty 7 Racing ER650) and Elm e Mostert on the Samurai Racing SV650, while Bradley Mustoe (CCHSA RC390) and James Luyt (RSRA/Ravenol) have the SSP 300 category all to themselves.
