Home of motorsport in the Western Cape

FROM THE CASTROL TOWER...

Welcome to Round 5 of the Power Series presented by Lime Property Management in association with Smile FM.

We've gone all out to make it a warm welcome at this midwinter event, with the re-opening of the revamped, re-imagined Trackside Restaurant, Pizzeria and Bar at the WPMC Clubhouse, complete with a genuine wood-fired oven for delicious traditional pizzas, as well as a full menu of steaks, burgers, schnitzels, children's meals and some of the best espresso coffee in Cape Town.

The friendly ambience includes live-streaming and live timing on big-screen TV's so you can follow the action while you enjoy your meal.

And the welcome for you and your family is just as warm at all our food and beverage outlets around the facility, including the Tuckshop at the front of the Clubhouse for on-the-go takeaways, the Joubert Pits Lounge overlooking the Porsche Club Straight and the Karting Cafe in the pits at the karting circuit.

Our motorsport fraternity – competitors, crews, marshals, race officials and spectators – are called the Killarney Family for a reason.

Racing is more than just cars, bikes and lap times. It's the early mornings, the late nights, the families, friendships and passion that bring us all together. Because the best racing stories aren't just about who wins — they're about the people who make it happen.

You'll notice that your ticket doesn't have a seat number on it – you're welcome to call our free shuttle service (you'll find the number in these pages) and move around to watch the racing from different viewpoints.

Then join us on the Porsche Club Straight during the lunch break to meet the drivers, take selfies with racing cars and become part of our story. Visit the pits (at no extra charge!), experience the behind-the-scenes action that you'll never see on TV, and check out the market stalls on the Clubhouse lawn.

Motorsport is a family thing: Welcome to the Killarney Family.

IN MEMORIAM

RIP DANIEL SIMONIS

It was with great sadness that we learned of the sudden and unexpected passing of Daniel Simonis in the early hours of Saturday 13 June, at the age of only 65.

Every sport needs people who love the sport enough to give it up – and that is exactly what this Killarney stalwart did.

He began his racing career many years ago racing single seaters, several times finishing the points table in the top three of his class, until he suffered a major heart attack in 2015.

Five months and a triple bypass later he was back at Killarney, this time racing karts. He was soon competitive again, finishing his rookie year near the top of his class, and was awarded Sportsman of the Year.

The following year he decided it was time to give back and approached Clerk of the Course Brian Hoskins to ask what he could do for Killarney.

He soon became a valued and highly qualified member of the Race Control team, while also being active in the karting section as a scrutineer.

For the past decade he has been a constant presence on race days, always pulling his weight and getting it done with his characteristic smile. The picture you see here was taken at the 2024 Western Province Motor Club AGM, where Daniel was presented with an Honours Award for his dedicated service to WPMC.

Our thoughts and prayers are with his wife Venetia, his daughters Donna and Raene, and the Simonis and Le Riche families, in this difficult time.

Daniel will be sorely missed in Race Control, at Karting and on the start line at Main Circuit events, where somehow, he always seemed to be exactly where he was needed.

The entry-level Class C boasts 10 entries, all limited to 107kW and 195Nm. With no clear favourites, it's all up to who wants it most – and the action is likely to get physical as they jockey for position. Truly it is said that GTi Challenge racing is a contact sport!

The combined Warwick Wealth Sports & GT and Pirelli V8 Masters entry list is topped by three Class S racers, each having proven that it is capable of lapping the 3.267km Killarney Main Circuit in less than 72 seconds – expect fireworks from Harp Motorsport boss Steve Humble in the Ravenol Pilbeam MP84, Dawie Joubert's Nova Proto NP02 and the Advanced Packaging Technology Ginetta LMP G57 of Gary Kieswetter.

The rest of the 22-strong field consists of an even mix of locally built Pirelli V8 Masters, Porsche 911 derivatives, classic sports-racing cars from Ligier, Lotus and Nardini, alongside two-door GT's such as Nissan 350Z's, a BMW M3 and an Audi R8 that might just surprise some of the more fancied exotics.

The Pro Oil Supercars and Kaltron Fine Cars will be sharing the track again in two fascinating races, with Supercar hotshots Glen Phillips, Andrew Moffitt and Nashrene Schloss likely to set the pace. With 12 identical Supercars in the mix, however, anything could happen and probably will.

Fine Cars honours will be fought out between iconic roadsters such as Di Dugmore's Piri Piri Racing Morgan Plus 4, and two MGA's in the hands of former champion Roger Lewis and Dave Alexander, along as well as current champion Natasha Tischendorf's first-generation Volkswagen Jetta CLi – which is a considerably older than she is!

Formula Libre once again presents us with two races in one, as three closely matched Formula VW Reynard drivers (Dee-Jay Booysen, Kohen Bam and Storm Lanfear) set the pace at the sharp end, while no less than nine Formula Vee's battle it out for class honours in midfield, in some of the fiercest racing you'll see all day.

‘WINTER – WHAT WINTER?’ SAY KILLARNEY RACERS

Despite the likelihood of bitterly cold and possibly wet weather (this weekend comes just four days after the winter solstice, after all) there are impressive entries in most categories for Round 5 of the Power Series presented by Lime Property Management in association with Smile FM - over thirty each in the Thermo Fires Clubmans Saloons, Laude Classic Cars and Cadiz BMW CCCT fields.

The action at the sharp end of the Clubmans races looks like a four-way showdown between Clint Rennard (G&A Motorsport Golf 2), rising star Jaco Lambert (AL Auto Performance Polo 1.8L), series sponsor Steven Gouws (Thermo Fires Jetta 3 1.8L) and veteran Jess Huggett's Rico Barlow Racing Jetta 2 1.8 T)

Keep an eye out, however, for Class B hotshots Gary Smith in the lone Truckport Logistics BMW E36, Schalk Geldenhuys (Goeie Hoop Onderdele Polo 6) and hot rookie Nikita Thieme (CHR/Plus+-Minus Polo 6R 2L) who has already rattled a few cages in the API Property Group GTi Challenge. Any of these could well spring a surprise on the day.

The Classic Car charge is led by Franco Donadio's thundering Chev Can Am, ahead of a strong Class A field of (mostly) Fords – Michael Hitchcock's Cross Cape Forklift Services Mustang, the Fairmonts of Boetie van Zyl and Mark Uytendogaardt, Trevor Momberg's All Scale M&E Auto Capri 3.4L and the Cape Eye Laser Capri Mk1 of Jarryd Evans.

Add to that the Lynx Porsche 944T in the hands of Eric van der Merwe and PW Louw's PWL Konsult RX7, and the stage is set for an epic showdown. But with 32 cars on the grid, it's going to be all action all the way, with racing as classic as the cars.

The midfield contest in the one-make BMW CCCT races will be just as intense, while the only Class A entry, Connor Kilbride in the Racing Spirit M3, fends off Class B leaders Mansoor Parker (Parker Parts E30 325i) and Anwar Levy (Parker Parts E36 328i). With 32 entries in six classes, everybody will have somebody to dice with – Killarney's fastest growing category always produces intense racing.

The API Property Group GTi Challenge has mustered a creditable 20 entries for this Midwinter Mayhem event, with a couple of surprises in Class A. Lining up with class favourite Shane Williams' Cellucity/Magmaster/Eurogrip Polo 6R 2L are Nikita Thieme in the same (CHR/Plus+-Minus Polo 6R 2L) and Jurie Swart Senior, the father of Jurie 'Umpie' Swart who dominated this category a few years back. Swart Snr will be driving the Alpine Autohaus Polo Gti 2L, and he could just be the man to watch.

WINTER LEVELS THE PLAYING FIELD FOR KILLARNEY SUPERBIKE RACERS

While it is true that all naturally aspirated engines run better when the air is cold, not even tyre warmers can make up for the reduced grip when the midwinter track temperature is measured in single digits.

Which is why the motorcycle races at Round 5 of the Power Series presented by Lime Property Management in association with Smile 90.4 FM this weekend is not about who has the most powerful machine, but who can best use that power on a cold circuit.

And in the Pirelli Superbikes/Superbike Challenge/Masters/600's races that's likely to be superbly talented teenager Tristin Pienaar on the Missile Motorcycles Honda 1000SP – although Eeden Heyns (Project 60/Helderberg Car Clinic ZX-10R) and the vastly experienced Michael du Toit (TWH Bridging Finance R1) will probably have something to say about that.

In the Challenge category, multiple former champion Wayne Arendse (Eagle Vision Association ZX-10R) and Daniel Frost (CHW Design/Motorwise CBR1000) take on hot rookie Byron Arendse (no relation!) on the Apex Bets/Project 60 X-10R. This talented young man's meteoric rise through the ranks in just a few months to the second-highest tier of motorcycle racing at Killarney has impressed insiders, but his lack of experience may be against him in these difficult conditions.

Juan Momberg (Motorwise ZX-10R), William Morris (MB Aircon Strand GSX-R1000) and Wayne Gresse (Tony's Motor Spares CBR1000) will be leading the charge in the Pirelli Clubman, Classic & Breakfast Run races, but the wintry conditions may favour the more agile 600 Class machines, notably Gerhard Joubert's Triumph Daytona 675 and Saud Adam's Honda CBR600RR. Expect surprises...

And be ready to cheer on Breakfast Runner Michael Bekker, with his distinctive elbows-out riding style on his KTM SMR 990 supermotard – an unlikely but surprisingly effective track tool.

The Pirelli STC 650 & SSP 300 entry list reflects the depth of talent in this class, with any one of six riders capable of taking the win. Look out for current Superbike champion Slade 'Wild Child' Van Niekerk on the Project 60 ER6-N, Nicholas Hutchings (Kawasaki ER650), Abigail Bosson (Project Sixty SA /Calberg Hydraulics/Sale's Hire ER650), father and son Klint and Max Munton on the Sunscan & Mag Workshop ER650's and Adrian Solomon's Pool King ER650. Just don't ask us to predict the outcome!

Likewise, the SSP 300 category is likely to become a four-way showdown between Bradley Mustoe (CCHSA RC 390), Liam Carstens (Missile Motorcycles RX400), James Luyt's RSRA/Ravenol Ninja 400 and the Promar Projects RC 390 of Julian Ferreira.
